

Giorgio Pradelli elected Chairman of Swiss Bankers Association

Zurich, 12 May 2026

EFG International CEO Giorgio Pradelli is to assume the role in September 2026. He will remain CEO of EFG International.

EFG International is announcing today that its Chief Executive Officer, Giorgio Pradelli, has been unanimously elected Chairman of the Swiss Bankers Association (SBA) by the SBA's Board of Directors. He will succeed Marcel Rohner and assume the role at the Swiss Bankers Day on 17 September 2026. Giorgio Pradelli will continue in his role as CEO of EFG International and will step down from other industry mandates.

Alexander Classen, Chairman of the Board of Directors of EFG International, says: "We warmly congratulate Giorgio on his election. His appointment is a recognition of his leadership and experience as well as his outstanding reputation within the Swiss and international banking community."

Giorgio Pradelli comments: "I am honoured by the trust placed in me and am fully aware of the responsibility associated with this role. The Swiss financial centre plays a vital role in the economy and enjoys an international reputation for stability, trust and high-quality service. I look forward to contributing to its continued strength and competitiveness. At the same time, I remain fully committed to my role as CEO of EFG International and to executing our strategic priorities, supported by the strong management team. "

Giorgio Pradelli has been CEO of EFG International since 2018 and has more than 35 years of experience in global wealth and asset management. In connection with his election as Chairman of the SBA, Giorgio Pradelli will relinquish several external mandates. In particular, he will step down from the Chairmanship of the Association of Swiss Asset and Wealth Management Banks (VAV), from his role as Chairman of the SBA's Private Banking Steering Committee, and from the Board of Fondation Genève Place Financière.

He will remain a member of the Board of the Swiss-American Chamber of Commerce.
