

EFG International names Deputy CEO

Zurich, 8 January 2014 - EFG International's Chief Financial Officer, Giorgio Pradelli, will additionally assume the role of Deputy CEO.

In order to allow John Williamson, CEO of EFG International, to devote more of his time to the development of the five regional private banking businesses, as well as investment and wealth solutions, Giorgio Pradelli, Chief Financial Officer, will in future focus on EFGI's operational and risk platform and additionally take on the role of Deputy CEO. This applies with immediate effect.

The composition of EFGI's Executive Committee remains unchanged, although the reporting lines of the Chief Operating Officer, Chief Risk Officer and Group General Counsel transfer from John Williamson to Giorgio Pradelli.

A revised high-level organisation structure is included as an appendix to this release.

John Williamson, Chief Executive:

"Since joining us in June 2012, Giorgio has made a significant contribution to the conclusion of our business review, in particular the strengthening of our capital position and overall risk profile. His promotion to Deputy CEO is well deserved and allows for a clear focus of responsibilities within the executive team to support our objective of controlled, profitable growth."

Contacts – EFG International

Media Relations
+41 44 226 1217
mediarelations@efginternational.com

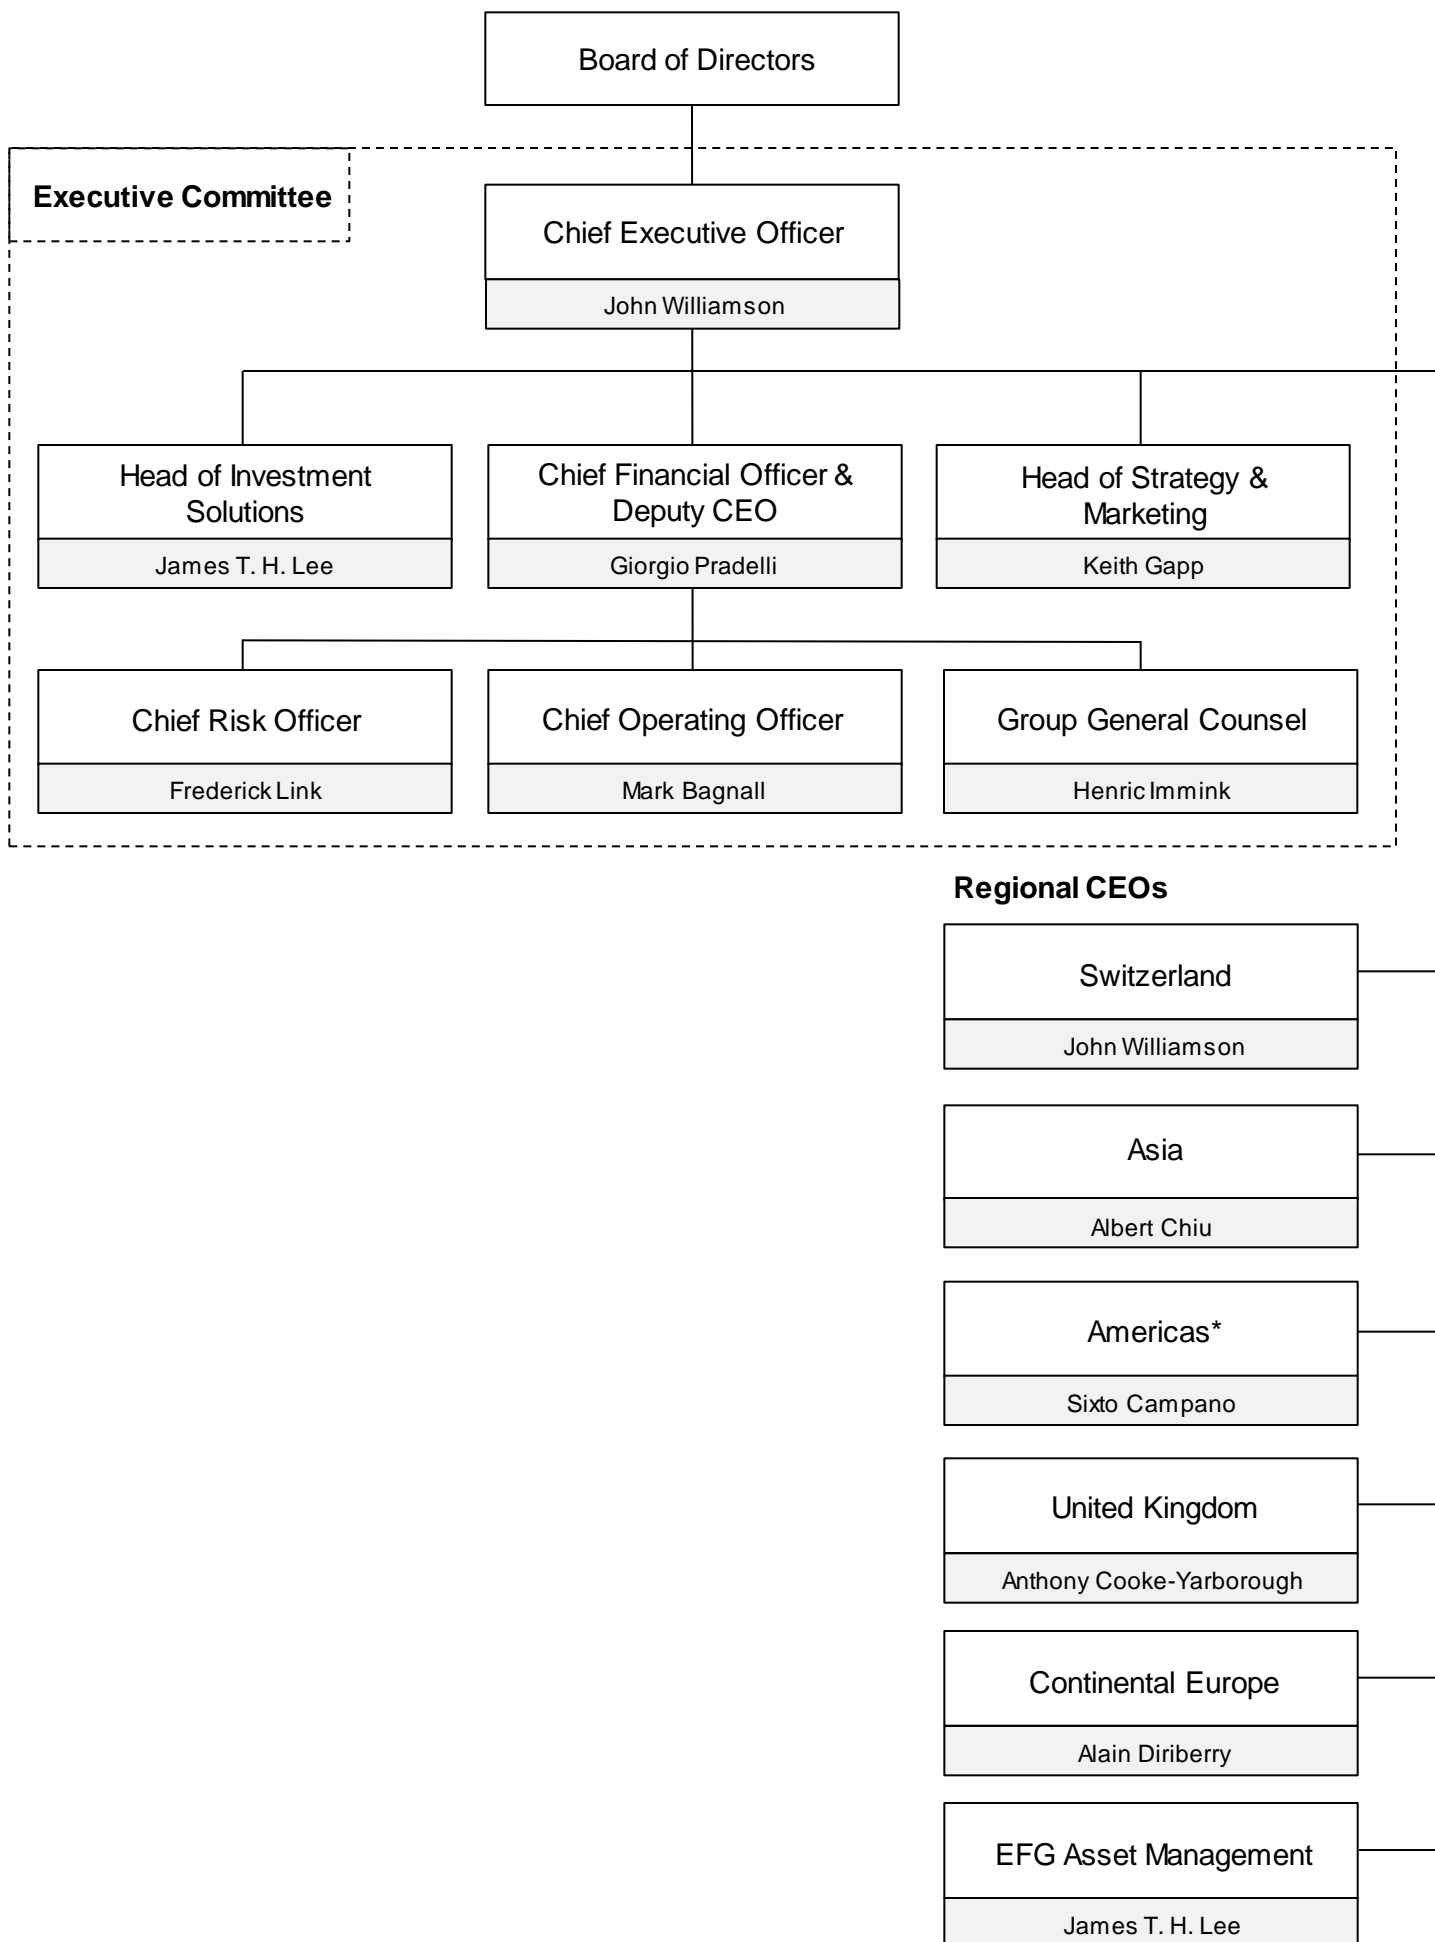

Investor Relations
+41 44 212 7377
investorrelations@efginternational.com

About EFG International

EFG International is a global private banking group offering private banking and asset management services, headquartered in Zurich. EFG International's group of private banking businesses operates in around 30 locations worldwide, with circa 2,000 employees. EFG International's registered shares (EFGN) are listed on the SIX Swiss Exchange.

Practitioners of the craft of private banking

Appendix – EFG International organisational structure

* Including Caribbean region