

EFG International announces new sponsorship

Zurich, 9 June 2008 – EFG International is to sponsor Le Mans Classic.

EFG International, in the name of EFG Bank, has agreed to become a new main sponsor of this year's Le Mans Classic. It will be one of two main sponsors, alongside watchmaker Richard Mille.

EFG International recently announced its entry into the French market with the acquisition of Sycomore Gestion Privée.

Le Mans Classic has established itself as one of the three major classic car events in the world. This year's event, from 11-13 July, will bring together 1,000 drivers from 25 countries, driving 400 historic cars from some of the world's leading collections.

This new partnership allows EFG Bank to establish its name with drivers, spectators and followers of the Le Mans Classic.

Since the first event in 2002, Le Mans Classic has made steady progress, and for this year's event expects to welcome around 100,000 spectators. The partnership with EFG Bank provides further evidence, if any was needed, of the event's high standing.

Contacts

Le Mans Classic

mallanguillaume@peter.fr
bwaldbillig@peter.fr
+33 (0)1 42 59 73 40
www.lemansclassic.com

EFG International

Media Relations
+41 44 212 7387
mediarelations@efginternational.com

About EFG International

EFG International is a global private banking group offering private banking and asset management services, headquartered in Zurich. EFG International's group of private banking businesses currently operate in 50 locations in over 30 countries, with circa 2,000 employees. EFG International's registered shares (EFGN) are listed on the SWX Swiss Exchange. EFG International is a member of the EFG Group headquartered in Geneva, Switzerland, which is the third-largest banking group in Switzerland by Tier-1 Capital.

EFG International

Practitioners of the craft of private banking