

EFG International announces changes to its leadership team

Zurich, 18 December 2015. Peter Fischer has been appointed Head of Strategy, HR & Marketing and a Member of EFG International's Executive Committee, effective 1 January 2016. Keith Gapp and Henric Immink will leave the firm to pursue other opportunities.

Peter Fischer has been appointed Head of Strategy, HR & Marketing and a Member of EFG International's Executive Committee, effective 1 January 2016.

Peter Fischer, a Swiss national, joined EFG in 2015 and has extensive professional experience in project and line management. He worked at Bank Sarasin & Cie and later Bank J. Safra Sarasin from 2000 until 2015, where he held a number of leadership positions including Chief of Staff & Corporate Development. Prior to that, Peter Fischer headed various front office and staff functions at Credit Suisse and UBS in Switzerland, Europe, Asia and the USA.

Peter Fischer takes over from Keith Gapp, who has decided to leave EFG by the end of February 2016 after more than eight years of service to the firm. Keith Gapp joined EFG International in 2007 as Head of Strategic Marketing & Communications, and was appointed to the Executive Committee as of December 2007.

In addition, Henric Immink, Group General Counsel and a Member of EFG International's Executive Committee, will step down from his role at the end of 2015, after more than five years with the firm. He was appointed Group General Counsel and a Member of EFG's Executive Committee as of January 2011. He joined EFG International in 2010 as Senior General Legal Counsel.

EFG International's new General Counsel will be announced in due course.

Joachim H. Strähle, Chief Executive Officer, EFG International:

- "During their tenures, both Keith and Henric have put in relentless work, provided excellent advice and added tremendous value to EFG's development. The leadership team owes them considerable thanks for their contributions and wishes them all the best in their future endeavours. At the same time, we welcome Peter Fischer to the Executive Committee and look forward to drawing on his vast professional experience."
